

Folk Life Festival 2015
Annaberg Sugar Plantation Ruins

Department of the Interior
National Park Service
Virgin Islands National Park

Virgin Islands National Park
thanks you for attending and observing the folk life of the Virgin Islands.

Folk Life Festival 2015
Keeping it Alive

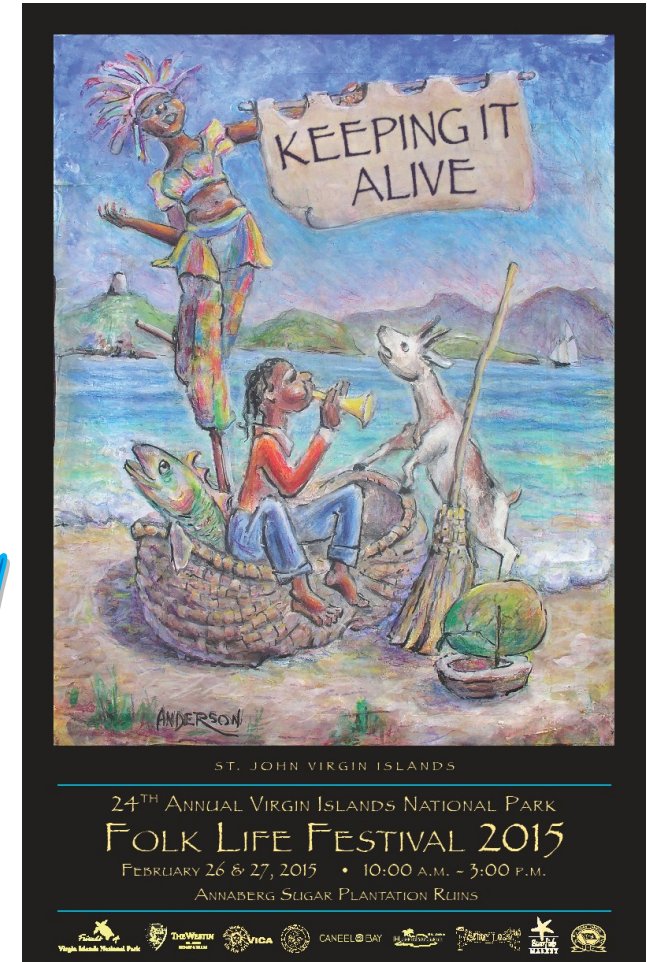

Folk Life Festival 2015
Annaberg Sugar Plantation Ruins

Department of the Interior
National Park Service
Virgin Islands National Park

Virgin Islands
National Park welcomes you to
Folk Life
Festival 2015
"Keeping It Alive"

The Park uses this annual celebration to educate guests and local children about the independent life ways created and practiced by Virgin Islanders. During the 1800's & early 1900's the knowledge of island resources allowed this population to survive and prosper in an environment where others had failed.

Keeping it Alive Culture Quiz, 2015

1. What is the name of the tree used to make brooms?

2. Can your broom made from this tree get wet?
Yes _____ No _____
3. "Plaiting" means?
Circle 1 Combing Weaving Cutting
4. What fuel is used to cook in an old oven or pot?

5. Name a tree you can use to make a musical instrument.

6. Name 2 local fruits you can use to make juice.
_____ & _____
7. Name the bird a fisherman looks for to find fish?

8. Name a tree used in bush tea and what does the tea cure for _____
9. Name a toy you can make from wood?

10. Name something in your house you can re-cycle into a useful tool?

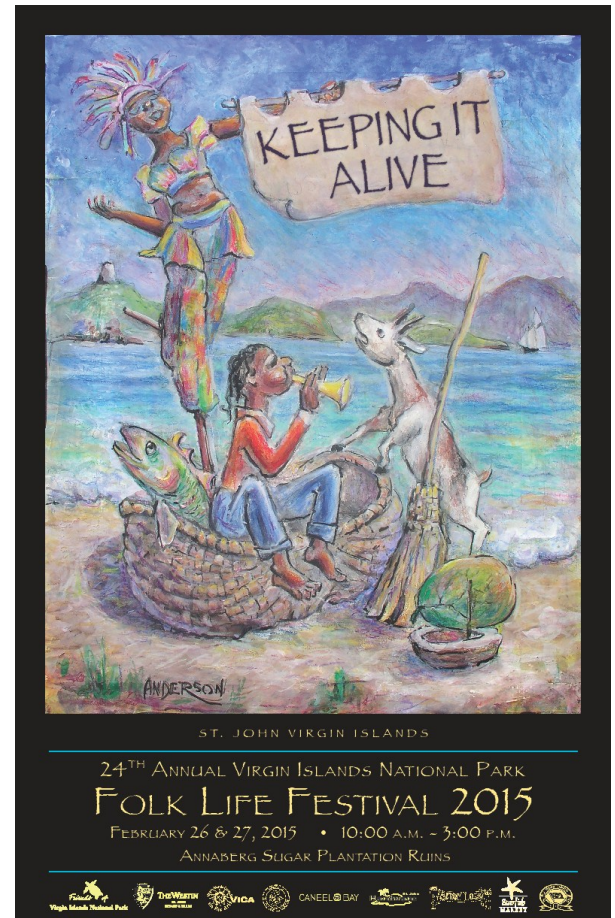

Virgin Islands National Park thanks you for attending and learning about the Folk Life of the people of the Virgin Islands.

Virgin Islands National Park welcomes you to

Folk Life Festival 2015 Keeping it Alive

The Park uses this annual celebration to educate guests and local children about the independent life ways created and practiced by Virgin Islanders. During the 1800's & early 1900's the knowledge of island resources allowed this population to survive and prosper in an environment where others had failed.

Please visit the Festival "Activity Stations" placed around the property. The stations will allow guests to participate & learn about the traditional arts, crafts, skills and history of Virgin Islanders.

ACTIVITY STATIONS

- * Henry Powell, old time tools & implements.
- * Mario Benjamin, fishnets.
- * Ms. Aubain, palm leaf plaiter.
- * Eileen Huggins & Letitia Henry, basket weavers
- * Ethlyn Simmonds, traditional foods
- * Charles Jackson, Provision Garden
- * Olivia Christian, traditional baking & cooking
- * Donald Christopher, baking Dutch oven
- * Chandis Davis, Maubi making
- * Avelino Samuel, woodworking
- * Jane Johannes, traditional foods
- * Mr. Todman, sugar cane juice
- * Elmo Rabsatt, honey production
- * Gwendolyn Douglas, traditional breads
- * Lorlei Hedrington, local recipes
- * Park Archeologist Ken Wild, historic Taino and colonial African-enslaved cultures
- * Ecelma Sprauve & Floresa Henley traditional baking
- * Veronica Jones-Jackson, local handmade jewelry
- * Norma Pickering, local drinks & sweet treats
- * Lorene Blackwood, Vienna cakes
- * Jennifer Williams, Esther Frett, & Yolanda Morton, Arts & Crafts
- * Patrick Joseph, local foods & coal pit making

Thursday, February 26, 2015 ON STAGE PRESENTATIONS Emcees' Brownie-Ras Regg-Tony T

Invocation—Pastor Sampson

1. The Music Makers
2. Eddie Bruce & Co. Drumming
3. Gladys Abraham Quadrille Dancers
4. Ulla Muller "Lashing Pups"
5. Glen "Kwabena" Davis & Co. story telling & music
6. Echo People, drumming with Allergra Christopher & Marie Paul
7. Cancryn School Drumline
8. Traditional Mocko Jumbies

Friday, February 27, 2015 ON STAGE PRESENTATIONS Emcees' Brownie-Ras Regg-Tony T

Invocation—Pastor Sampson

1. The Music Makers
2. Eddie Bruce & Co. Drumming
3. Holy Family Quadrille Dancers
4. Bertha C. Boshulte "Flambo Combo"
5. Cancryn School Wankanga Dancers
6. Echo People, drumming with Allergra Christopher & Marie Paul
7. Cancryn School Choir
8. Traditional Mocko Jumbies
9. Glen "Kwabena" Davis & Co. story telling & music